Speech

By Mr. Maulik Jasubhai
Honorary Vice-Consul of Austria

It was an evening to remember, welcoming His Excellency Mr Bernhard Wrabetz, his lovely wife Johanna, Dr Professor Elizabeth Vitouch and Mr. Peter Vitouch, friends, well-wishers and dear old colleagues to the Viennese Ball. It was truly wonderful having them all there at this festive night in the Viennese tradition.

There were so many reasons for celebrating. The first one of course was in the honour of my father, Mr Jasu Shah, who has been associated with Austria for more than three and a half decades, since 1980, as the Honorary Consul-General of Austria in Mumbai. And it has been a wonderful, wonderful journey for him and us as a family when we have been almost literally growing up with Austria around us in Mumbai. The second reason to celebrate is that CHEMTECH Foundation, again, started by my father, has reached the milestone of completing 40 years in 2015. Starting from 1975, it has been an incredible journey with some of the most iconic and amazing business leaders who CHEMTECH has been able to bring together to play a small role in bringing technologies, innovative ideas for the chemical process industry and core industries for India's future and India's growth. We are delighted to share this vision and dedication with so many of our Chemtech patrons and friends as we enter the fifth decade of Chemtech in India.

Jasubhai Group, as a family, as a business entity, will complete 50 years of operations. Mr Jasu Shah started the Jasubhai group in 1966, so next year we enter the sixth decade of the Jasubhai Group. It has been an incredible journey! All of you may have heard of product cycles, and we are on the fourth life cycle. From the early days of 60s and 70s of Chemical Engineering World and Chemtech, then in the 80s and 90s - our joint ventures with Fisher-Rosemount and Emerson Process Management, in 2000, the new IT media and technology media with brands like ZD Net, CHIP and Digit, and today the evolution of Jasubhai Engineering into an international enterprise, expanding in the Middle East and European markets.

This journey would never have been possible, were it not for the wonderful good wishes and enormous support, enormous love and enormous goodwill that we have from our well-wishers, our friends and from partners. So this is a small 'thank you' to all for enabling us to traverse these 50 years and to look beyond.

“

This journey would never have been possible, were it not for the wonderful good wishes and enormous support, enormous love and enormous goodwill that we have from our well-wishers, our friends and from partners.

Mr. Maulik Jasubhai (Honorary Vice-Consul of Austria)

I am feeling more at home in Mumbai, than I did before this evening. I just wanted to welcome you on behalf of Austria and wish you a wonderful evening. I think I share your curiosity about what's going to happen over the next few hours. I know what a Viennese Ball is like but after studying the programme I came to the conclusion that it is an extremely elaborate Viennese Ball and I am so full of anticipation that I will not bother you with a long speech.

I would like to thank our Honorary Consul-General, Mr. Jasu Shah. He has been a friend of Austria for many decades; he has been the Honorary Consul-General for many decades and he has been our representative here in Mumbai and there are no words to describe what he did to improve and maintain the wonderful relations that exist between Austria and the west of India. So many, many thanks that you have done that wonderful job and continue to be a friend of Austria.

The other person to thank is the one who had the idea for tonight, Maulik Jasubhai. Maulik asked me when we first met, about a year ago or so, "You know, we should do something in Mumbai, we hunger for Austrian Culture, we need to arrange a nice event. Why don't we do a ball?" Knowing what that entails, I was sceptical, because it requires a huge effort from a lot of people, to arrange everything so perfectly. Thank you very, very much for not only having this idea, but also for going through on the idea and implementing it.

This is fantastic!

*- H.E. Mr. Bernhard Wrabetz
Ambassdor of Austria*

Your Excellencies, ladies and gentlemen, dear guests. I am very glad to welcome you here on behalf of Vienna, to the Vinnese Ball in Mumbai. The Viennese Ball is an international affair, a brand, a world cultural heritage and they date back to the times of the Viennese congress which, did not only dance in palaces, but decided the future of Europe after the Napoleonic wars. Now-a-days the Viennese ball takes place all over the world, but every destination is a little bit different except for the traditional ceremony, which means an opening with young ladies and gentlemen, a midnight Quadrille and waltzes. We will see what will happen in Mumbai. I invite you to come to Vienna and enjoy Vienna in this fabulous room with dancing and music. Enjoy the Viennese ball in Mumbai and dont forget to waltz.

*- Dr Professor Elisabeth Vitouch
President of the commitee for European and International Affairs*

Waltz Classes

Mumbai 2014

In preparation for the Viennese Ball the dancing enthusiasts of Mumbai were invited to participate in a series of ten dance classes that focused specifically on the waltz leading to the viennese waltz, but which also included some other western dance steps.

The participants for the formal opening of the Viennese Ball were selected out of this wider group of Mumbai's citizens. These selected debutantes were further trained for the formal opening sequence at the Ball. The classes were well attended with over 170 registrations and were well appreciated. The Viennese waltz has to a great extent been popularised in social dancing at the dance nights of various clubs in Mumbai after these classes.

It was indeed a unique experience to have been part of this initiative of the consulate in capacity of general learner and assisting behind the scenes etc. These memories and new skills will stay with me forever ! And hoping to take them ahead of course.

- Swati Chokshi

“

Indeed it was a very profound experience! I enjoyed the whole “project” from holding public classes to training the Debutantes.

- Selma Kriegner

Hearty congratulations to you for pulling off a glitch-free celebration of the quintessence of Vienna, its Waltz.

I also hope that this Ball would be the beginning of many an enjoyable evening of Waltz at the dance nights at the gymkhanas and clubs of Bombay.
